"THE ISLE OF SPICE"

Description of Coming Play at Barre Opera House.

"The Isle of Spice," a musical comedy of more than the average merit, opened a week's engagement at Ford's Opera House last evening. Considering the fact that a very large class of theatregoers eschew the pleasures of the play during the week preceding Easter, the audience last night was a large one. The production was presented in Baltimore previously, and therefore, it did not come as an entire novelty, but as an attraction whose merit has been tested.

"The Isle of Spice" has plenty of merit, both in its book and in its musical numbers. It is doubtful if there are many musical productions that can boast of so many "catchy" airs, and after all is said and done, a musical comedy depends for its success upon the "catchiness" of its music. But music in one of these productions is quite enough to fill it. Then the book has quite a good amount of clever comedy, everything of it clean and wholesome, and the company which served this comedy to the audience last evening is a rather pretty good one.

The idea—it does not reach the proportions of a plot—around which the interest runs is the supposed and proposed incarceration in the tomb of silence, situated upon the Isle of Spice of two deserters from the United States steamship Roosevelt. These two gentlemen, who have made their escape from their ship in a balloon drop upon the island at the time when the king is looking for some substitutes to take the place of his intended wife in this tomb, and their arrival seems quite opportune to His Majesty. The two deserters manage, sometimes through the connivance of members of the court, sometimes through their own ingenuity, to make their escape.

Several times they put on disguises and do other things equally grotesque and funny. The intended wife, who is also the King's ward, complicates matters by falling in love with a young lieutenant in the United States Navy. But, of course, everything comes out all right and all live very happy ever after.

There are a number of clever scenes introduced. Whenever Mickey O'Grady and Shubay Mackinaw make their appearance it is the time to laugh. When forced to make good their despatch that they are astrologer and fortune teller by performing tricks and telling fortunes, their stunts are very funny, and the card game into which they inveigle the trusting king was another portion of the performance that made a hit. The roles were played by Herbert Cave-thorne and Harry Watson two comedians whose work is such as to render them deserving of the name.

Their grotesque makeup, their absurd mannerisms, their songs and their dances all contributed to the general laugh-producing result.

Sam Myle as Bambopka, the seventh king of Nibolar, was another actor whose comedy work was applauded, and Harry Griffin and Robert Kane, two court attendants, played their parts acceptably. Charles Russell, as the young American lieutenant, acted and sang fairly well.

Miss Leslie Leigh, as Teresa, the king's ward, looked extremely pretty, acted with animation and displayed a rather good voice in the vocal numbers that fell to her lot; and Misses Susie Forrester and Frances Savage filled the requirements of the roles of the two queens. An actress who was very pretty and charming was Lillian Gorman, who played Mother Witch. The production was artistically staged, the costumes pretty and the choruses good.—Baltimore American.

PUBLIC HEALTH NOTICE.

A HARD STRUGGLE

Many a Barre Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching, with distressing urinary disorders, daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Barre people endorse this claim:

M. J. Spaulding, painter, living at the corner of Warren street and Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "I had more or less kidney trouble for five years, and think it was brought on by conditions which any man working at my trade is subject to. After a hard day's work there would be such an aching in my back that I could hardly sleep at all. Dark spots floated before my eyes at times and the action of the kidney secretions plainly showed that the kidneys were disordered. The use of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. A. Brown's drug store, stopped the back-ache and corrected the kidney weakness so that the secretions were regulated and became natural in color. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney remedy I know of, and I have advised their use to friends whom I have heard complaining of their back or kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

COURTSHIP BY MAIL

ENDS IN MARRIAGE

Bride From Maine, Groom From Georgia. Both Recommended by Ministers.

Rangor, May 12.—A courtship by mail terminated last week in the marriage of Miss Lillian F. Carley of Blaine, Me., to Green M. Barker, a merchant at Everett Springs, Ga. They have never met until the groom arrived at the home of the bride last Saturday evening. Three days later they were married. The bride became Mrs. Barker on her twenty-third birthday.

The correspondence which ended in marriage began early last winter, and Methodist clergymen in Maine and Georgia wrote to each other at the request of the parties to the romance to learn about the character of the sweethearts. Mrs. Barker is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Carley of Blaine, a member of the Baptist church, and active in the Daughters of Rebekah. She was formerly a member of the Grange. After graduating from the musical department of the Ricker Classical Institute she taught music. Mr. Barker conducted a general store in Everett Springs. They will be at home in Georgia after May 15.

SHOT A BURGLAR.

Thief Is Said to Have Been Related to a Pair of Senators.

New York, May 14.—William Hickey, a burglar, lost his life at New York Saturday in a revolver battle on the roof of a Ninth-avenue flat. Patrick McGuire, who shot him, is a neighbor of the family which the burglar had robbed. Hickey, without having weakened any of his victims, was crawling out of a window of their flat, with his arms full of stolen clothing and $35 in cash besides, when McGuire saw him. The burglar stepped out upon the roof of a one-story structure, upon which McGuire's flat overlooked. McGuire fired from the shelter of his window and the burglar's bullets broke the glass above his head. After several shots had been exchanged, the burglar fled, and was found dead a few minutes later in a doorway half a block distant. The police identified the dead man as William Hickey and said he was related to well-known families in New York. They said that he was related on his father's side to Edward Murphy of Troy, former United States senator, and on his mother's side to former State Senator George W. Plunkett. He was 32 and had served a 10-year's sentence in Sing Sing.

VIOLATORS OF GAME LAWS.

Punishment for Illegal Hunting and Fishing.

Stowe, May 12.—State Fish and Game Commissioner H. C. Thomas has been notified that William Davis of Pavlet has been arrested by Wardens Lincoln and Grogen on the charge of taking short trout. He was tried, found guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $12 and costs of $7.15.

Lawrence Huntley of Waterbury, arrested by Warden Parcher on a charge of keeping dogs that chased deer, was found guilty and fined $5 and costs of $5.67.

Warden Clark Rich of Averill arrested a man named Willette in Norton, and another named Demars in Canaan on the charge of killing deer illegally. Demars was bound over to Essex county court in the sum of $500, but Willette escaped from Deputy Sheriff Lafayette Stevens of Brighton into Canada. Commissioner Thomas censures Sheriff Stevens severely for allowing Willette to escape, as he is said to be a persistent violator of the game laws and his conviction was earnestly desired.
